

CHAP. 529

CHAPTER 529.

AN ACT to amend Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Fish," by adding a new Section thereto, to be known as Section 145 A.

New section added.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Fish," be amended by adding a new section thereto, to be known as section 145 A, so as to read as follows :

Unlawful for a non-resident to catch or kill fish, etc.

145 A. It shall not be lawful for any person not a bona fide resident or taxpayer of the State of Maryland, to catch or kill in any manner whatsoever, any fish in the Monocacy river or any of its tributaries, within the limits of said county, at any place north of and above the bridge crossing the Monocacy river on the turnpike road leading from Woodsboro to Creagerstown, without having first obtained from the clerk of the Circuit Court for said county a license to fish in said river and its tributaries for the period of one year, from the date of the issue thereof, and such license shall not be transferrable ; a license fee of ten dollars shall be charged for such license, besides the fifty cents to said clerk for issuing such license ; the whole amount of license money so received shall be paid by said clerk to the Board of School Commissioners of said county, for the use of the public schools therein. Any non-resident of said State convicted before a justice of the peace for fishing in the aforesaid waters of said county without such license shall be fined ten dollars for each offense, and in default of the payment of such fine and costs shall stand committed to the county jail for a period of thirty days ; and for the purpose of the strict enforcement of the aforesaid provisions of this (and the next preceding) section the sheriff, deputy sheriff, constables and road supervisors in said county are hereby clothed with the powers conferred on game wardens and deputy game wardens by the general laws of this State, and shall receive similar remuneration. The licensees under this section shall always when fishing, carry their licenses with them, and shall present them to any of the foregoing officers when demanded by them, and upon failure to produce such license, the said officer shall immediately arrest such party and take him before the nearest justice of the peace for trial.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1902.
