CHAPTER 531.

AN ACT to repeal Section 133, and to repeal and re-enact with amendments Section 138 of Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Washington County," sub-title "Fish."

Repeal and re-enact.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 133 of Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Washington County," sub-title "Fish," be and the same is hereby repealed, and that section 138 of said Article be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows:

Unlawful to catch or kill any fish with fish-pot, seine, weir, etc.

SECTION 138. No person shall catch, or attempt to catch, kill, or attempt to kill, in the waters of said county, any of the fish named in the two preceding sections, with or by means of any fish-pot, seine, weir, fykes, pound or trap-net, drag-net, stir-net, set-net, sledging, gigging, or any snare or device whatsoever, except by angling with hand-line, trot or out-line, or angling, with rod held in hand, or by dip-net or hand-net. All nets, seines and other devices, except fish-pots, forbidden by this section to be used, are hereby declared to be nuisances and contraband, and any person finding the same in the waters of said county, or adjacent thereto, is authorized to destroy such contraband articles and no action for damages shall lie against him for such destruction. Any person violating any provision of this section shall, upon conviction before any justice of the peace of said county, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than twenty-five dollars and the costs of the prosecution, and in default of payment of said fine and costs, to be committed to the jail of said county for a period of not less than ten nor more than thirty days.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1902.
