

CHAP. 545.
 Repeal and re-enact.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section 13 of Article 33, Code of Public General Laws, be and the same hereby is repealed and re-enacted, so as to read as follows :

Notice to be given by handbills, etc.

13. Said Board of Supervisors shall give ten days' notice of the time and place of registration, and of revision thereof, and of election in each precinct of such county or city, by handbills set up in the most public places in such precinct, and also in the counties by advertisement in two newspapers (one of which newspapers, if possible, shall be of opposite political faith from that of the majority of said supervisors) of general circulation therein, and in the city of Baltimore, by advertisement in all the daily newspapers which will publish the same at their current rates for advertising, and the sheriff of Baltimore city and of each county shall no longer publish such notices of election. Said board shall make all necessary rules and regulations not inconsistent with this Article, with reference to the registration of voters and the conduct of elections, and they shall have charge of, and make provisions for, all elections, general, special, local, municipal, State and county, and for all others of every description, to be held in such city or county, or any part thereof, at any time ; all questions shall be decided by a majority of the board, unless otherwise expressly provided in this Article ; provided, however, that in any incorporated city or town in this State (other than the city of Baltimore) in which the municipal or charter elections thereof are now regulated by the Public Local Laws of this State, the conduct of such municipal or charter elections shall continue to be so regulated as heretofore, and such Public Local Laws shall continue in force therein.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1902.
