

style of the Myersville Cemetery Association, and by that name shall be able and liable to sue and be sued in any Court having competent jurisdiction; and be it further enacted, that said corporation shall have the power to receive bequest by will, gifts or subscriptions, and may make and use a common seal.

CHAP. 546.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said J. Lemuel Doub, Samuel Pattingill, George C. Eldridge, William H. Leatherman, John F. Garmand, be known as directors of the Myersville Cemetery Association, and shall serve until the last Saturday in December, 1902, or until their successors are elected.

Directors.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That the election of directors shall be held annually the first Saturday in December or as soon thereafter as practicable, between the hours of 2 P. M. and 4 P. M., at such place as shall be designated by the directors by giving public notice. The number shall not be more than seven.

Time of election.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That the membership of said Myersville Cemetery Association may lessen the number of directors at their annual meeting for the purpose of giving any other cemetery association representation on the board of directors.

Number of directors reduced.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the said board of directors shall meet by January 1st, or within ten days thereafter, and organize by electing one of their number as president, one as secretary, and one as treasurer. Said board of directors shall have power to acquire land, make by-laws, rules and regulations for the government and management of the property in their charge, not inconsistent with the constitution and laws of the State. They shall have power to appoint such other officers, agents and employes as they may consider necessary; to fix their duties, to provide for their payment, and may discharge any or all of them whenever they may deem it expedient so to do. They shall have power to designate the person or persons who in their judgment are qualified to be entrusted with the digging, filling and walling of graves, and the making of all kinds of excavations for burial purposes, as well as for the foundations of all monuments, tombstones or other devices therein, and for the walling of the same in the cemetery grounds, and may prohibit the same from being done by any other person or persons. They shall lay out lots for burial purposes, drives, walks and such other devices as shall to them seem proper, and they shall cause all lots to be numbered, marked, or otherwise designated, and may dispose of them upon such terms and conditions as they may deem proper, and such lots, when sold, shall

President and other officers to be elected.