

be payable thirty years from date, and redeemable at the option of said town at any time after five years from their date; and said town shall have the same powers to levy a tax to pay said interest, and provide a sinking fund for the redemption of said bonds as are given by chapter 130 of the Acts of 1890, chapter 124 of the Acts of 1892, and chapter 69 of the Acts of 1898, relating to the outstanding bonds of said town, issued under said Acts.

CHAP. 555.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg, at a special election to be held on the second Tuesday in May, 1902, shall submit to the qualified voters of said town the question whether or not said bonds shall be issued as hereinbefore provided, and at such election all voters desiring to vote on said question shall cast a ballot on which shall be written or printed the words "For the Issue of Bonds," or "Against the Issue of Bonds," as the voter shall desire, and if a majority of the votes cast at said election shall be in favor of the issue of said bonds, the said Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg shall have power to issue said bonds to the extent of said sum of fifteen thousand dollars, or any part thereof, and to sell and dispose of the same, or any part thereof, for the purpose of raising the amount of money necessary to improve, enlarge and extend the existing system of water-works belonging to said town, and to increase, purify and safely store its water supply in such manner as may be found requisite to provide the inhabitants of said town with an adequate supply of good water; but if a majority of the votes cast at such election shall be against the issue of said bonds, then such bonds shall not be issued; and it shall be the duty of the said Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg to give the usual notice of the time, place and object of such special election, and they shall cause this Act to be published in some newspaper printed in said town at least ten days before such election.

election to be held.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1902.
