

CHAP. 72. said clerk and treasurer in a separate book to be especially provided for the purpose.

How applied. SEC. 2. The proceeds of the sale of said bonds hereby authorized to be issued by the town of Kensington shall be applied to the constructing of sidewalks or making other necessary road improvements in the said town of Kensington, as the Mayor and Council of said town shall determine.

Tax to be levied. SEC. 3. The town of Kensington shall have power and authority and are hereby required to levy all necessary taxes for the payment of the interest on said bonds hereby authorized to be issued as well as for the payment of the said bonds at maturity, and for the creation of a sinking fund of not less than two hundred dollars per annum. And said town of Kensington is hereby authorized and directed in levying said taxes to levy two-thirds of said tax for the construction of sidewalks in said town upon the property abutting upon said sidewalks, and the remaining one-third thereof upon the town of Kensington; provided, that any part of the proceeds arising from the sale of said bonds may, within the discretion of the Mayor and Council of said town (but not to exceed one thousand dollars) be used for road improvement in said town; the necessary taxes for the payment of such road improvements, and the interest and sinking fund therefor shall be assessed against all the taxable property within the corporate limits of said town.

SEC. 4. This Act shall take effect June first, 1902.

Approved March 20, 1902.

CHAPTER 73.

AN ACT to empower the Burgess and Commissioners of Middletown, in Frederick county, to call in and redeem the bonds issued by said municipal corporation by authority of an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January session, 1892, chapter 128, and by an Act passed at the January session, 1894, chapter 31, and to raise money therefor by issuing other bonds of said municipal corporation.

Bonds to be redeemed. SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Burgess and Commissioners of Middletown, in Frederick county, be and they are hereby authorized and empowered, at such time and in such manner as they may deem best, on and after the first day of April, in the year nineteen hundred and three, to call in and redeem the bonds