

CHAP. 590.
 Court shall make an order
 releasing said
 surety from liability upon
 the bond,
 etc.

as it may direct, to preserve the estate, and upon the return of such order to show cause, if the fiduciary account in due form of law and file a new bond duly approved, then said Court shall make an order releasing said surety from liability upon the bond for any subsequent act of default of the fiduciary, and in default of said fiduciary accounting and filing such new bond said Court shall make an order directing such fiduciary to account and file a new bond within thirty days; and if he shall account and file a new bond duly approved, such surety shall be discharged from all further liability for the acts or omissions of the fiduciary after the date of such surety being so relieved or discharged, and if such fiduciary shall fail within the time specified by order of Court to account and file a new bond as directed therein, the Court shall remove such fiduciary and appoint a successor in the trust, who shall be authorized to proceed against such fiduciary and his bond for the recovery of the estate. The costs of proceeding under this Act shall be taxed in the discretion of the Court.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1902.
