

CHAP. 592.*Duties of chief bailiff.

Section 25. That the chief bailiff shall attend all meetings of the Council and perform such duties as the Mayor and Council shall direct. He shall preserve the peace and good order of the town, and for this purpose he is invested with the same jurisdiction, power and authority as any constable of Garrett county has under the laws of this State.

Attorney to be appointed.

Section 27 A. That the Council may appoint an attorney, who shall render such legal services from time to time as may be required of him by the Mayor and Council and shall receive such compensation as the Council may prescribe.

Justice of the peace appointed.

Section 27 B. The Council may, in the month of May of each year, select some justice of the peace from district No. 7 of Garrett county to act as police magistrate for said town. He shall have full power and jurisdiction to hear and determine and pass sentence in all cases of violation of the ordinances of said corporation and may impose fine for such violation, or may both fine and imprison offenders for violation against said ordinances, and in default of payment of fine imposed by him shall commit the offender to the lock-up or county jail until the same be paid, as may be provided by the ordinances of the town.

Fees allowed.

Section 28. That the chief bailiff shall have the same fees for making arrests or serving process for violation of any ordinances of the corporation as are allowed constables for similar services.

Repeal.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That section four of chapter 450 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1896, be and the same is hereby repealed; but all rights, suits, claims, demands, contracts or obligations of the Mayor and Council of Loch Lynn Heights existing and pending at the time of the passage of this Act shall remain in full force and effect, and the Mayor and the members of the Council of the said town now in office under the provisions of the said sections repealed shall remain in office, with full authority to assert, prosecute and defend all such pending rights, suits, claims, demands, contracts or obligations, and to exercise all powers and duties of Mayor and Council until the expiration of their term of office and their successors are elected and qualified, as provided by this Act, and with full power to collect all taxes heretofore assessed and levied within the taxable limits of said corporation and remaining unpaid at the time of the passage of this Act.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 11, 1902.