

116 A. The Commissioners of said town may purchase and hold any property, real, personal or mixed that may be necessary for municipal purposes and dispose of the same for the benefit of said town. CHAP. 629.
May purchase
and hold
property, etc.

116 B. They shall have power to establish building lines in all the streets and highways in said town, or which shall hereafter be opened therefor, and to compel all persons erecting buildings in said town to conform thereto, under such penalties as they may prescribe by ordinance, but no building shall hereafter be erected for the purpose of a stable or privy or for a place for confinement of any live stock within one hundred feet of any existing public street or highway in said town. Any person or persons violating this last section shall on conviction pay a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred dollars for each offense and the costs of prosecution, and upon failure to pay the said fine and costs shall be committed to jail until the same shall be paid, or for the period of forty days, whichever shall first occur. May establish building
lines, etc.

116 C. No person shall permit his horses, mules, hogs or any cattle of any kind, with the exception of milch cows, to run at large within the limits of the said town of La Plata, and no person shall permit any cattle of any kind whatever to run at large within one hundred yards of the Pennsylvania Railroad Station, located in said town, or within one hundred yards of the court house in said town, or within one hundred yards of any church now constructed or hereafter to be constructed in said town, or upon or over any existing street or highway in said town running between any two of the aforementioned places, locations or structures, or leading from the lot or parcel of ground upon which any one of said structures is or shall be located to the lot or parcel of ground upon which any one of the other said named structures is or shall be located; provided, however, that if the commissioners of said town shall deem it for the best interests of the people of said town, and consistent with the maintenance of the healthfulness and cleanliness of said town, they may, upon giving ten days' notice in some newspaper published in the town of La Plata, suspend the operation of this last-mentioned provision prohibiting, as aforesaid, the running at large of all kinds of cattle within the said specified limits in said town, but such suspension shall, in no case in which the said commissioners may determine to exercise the power of the same, operate for more than three months at any one time; and provided further, that unless and until in the manner herein specified, the said commissioners shall order and put into effect such suspension this said provision shall be in full Unlawful to permit
animals to run at large
within limits
of town, etc.