

CHAP. 631. lishment of building lines and building regulations; for prohibiting the carrying of concealed weapons; for prohibiting the discharge of firearms, firecrackers, torpedoes and other explosives; for preventing swine, cattle, fowls, dogs or other animals from running at large on the streets; for licensing theatrical or other amusements; for the suppression of gambling, vice and immorality; for apprehending and punishing all tramps and vagrants; they may pass all ordinances necessary from time to time to carry out and enforce the foregoing provisions, and to give full force and effect to the powers and authority conferred on said corporation, and may enforce such ordinances by reasonable fines and penalties, not exceeding twenty-five dollars in any one case, as may appear to them right; they may recover said fine or penalty by an action of debt, and in addition thereto, may imprison the offender until the fine be paid, not exceeding thirty days, such imprisonment to be in the town lock-up, if one be provided, or in the county jail, and the sheriff of Prince George's county shall receive and confine any person so committed.

May pass certain ordinances.

SEC. 15. And be it enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council may pass such ordinances as they may deem necessary for the preservation of the health of the town, and remove all nuisances from, and prohibit all business within the corporate limits thereof, as shall in their opinion injuriously affect the sanitary condition thereof.

May extend
water mains,
etc.

SEC. 16. The Mayor and Common Council shall have authority to extend the water mains as the interest of the town, from time to time demands, the expenses of said extension to be paid out of the funds of the general revenue of the town.

Assessors
to be appointed.

SEC. 17. Be it enacted, That the Mayor and Common Council shall in June, 1902, and each four years thereafter, appoint three assessors, who shall have the same qualifications as those required for the Mayor and Common Council, as to residence and property, who shall, under the direction of said Mayor and Common Council, make an assessment of all property, and assess separately land, improvements and personal property at a fair cash value, at public sale, as near as they may be able to determine the same. The said Mayor and Common Council shall provide by ordinances for hearing appeals from any assessment which may be made. They shall cause to be made from time to time, during the four years' period, by the treasurer, assessments on improvements made, and all other property not contained in the general assessment list. They may, in their discretion, appoint the town treasurer as one of such assessors. They may make such
