

CHAP. 631.
Disposition
of cases.

ness, absence or disability of said justice, the hearing of the case or transaction of the business assigned to said justice by this charter may be had before any other justice of the peace in and for Prince George's county; and the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville may provide for the expense so incurred.

Style of ordinances.

SEC. 33. The style of all ordinances shall be "Be it enacted and ordained by the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville," and all suits at law for violation of any rules, ordinances, regulations and by-laws shall be instituted in the name of the Mayor and Common Council of Hyattsville against offending parties, and all fines recovered in such suits at law for the breach of any rule, ordinance, regulation or by-laws of the corporation, before any justice of the peace of Prince George's county, shall be collected by said justice and paid over to the treasurer of said corporation within one month after the collection of the same, and the said justice shall render an account to the Mayor and Common Council every month, or oftener if required, of the amount so received by him, and in the event of failure by any justice to account for and pay said collections, he shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars, to be collected as other fines imposed by the penal laws of the State.

Under control of Mayor
and Council.

SEC. 34. All streets, avenues, roads and alleys in the corporate limits of Hyattsville are hereby declared to be under the supervision and control of the Mayor and Common Council.

Amendment provided for.

SEC. 35. Amendment of this charter is provided for as follows: When one-fourth in number of the voters of Hyattsville, as shown by the votes cast at the last preceding regular election, shall file with the Mayor and Common Council a petition setting forth in exact language the amendment or amendments proposed by them, not less than six weeks prior to the convening of the General Assembly, it shall become the duty of said Mayor and Common Council to give at least four weeks' publicity to the said proposed amendment or amendments by having them printed in any newspaper published in Hyattsville and in notices posted in public places, as they may direct, and thereafter to issue a call for a special election thereon not less than two weeks prior to the convening of the General Assembly aforesaid. The proposed amendment or amendments may also be voted on at a regular town election unless such course would delay their presentation to the said General Assembly. All ballots at said election shall have printed thereon the words: "For amendment to the Town Charter, providing for ———," and "Against amendments to the Town Charter, providing for ———;" and if it shall

Form
of ballot.