

Terrapin," and also Chapter 594 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January Session of 1890, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, and that three additional sections be added to said Article, one of said new sections to follow immediately after Section 121, to be designated as Section 121 A, and one other of said new sections to follow immediately after Section 123, to be designated as Section 123 A, and one other of said new sections to follow immediately after Section 124, to be designated as Section 124 A. All said re-enacted and new sections to read as follows :

CHAP. 527

New sections added.

Section 110. It shall not be lawful for any person, except the bona fide residents of Kent county, to haul a seine in any of the rivers, creeks, coves or other waters lying in and around said county, without the permission of the owners or occupiers of the land bordering on the said waters.

Unlawful to haul seine without permission.

Section 111. It shall not be lawful for any person, except the bona fide resident citizens of Kent county to dredge for terrapins in any of the waters of said county; any person violating this or the preceding section shall pay a fine of not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, and forfeit the boat or vessel in his possession, together with the seine, tackle and all things on board at the time of the offense.

Unlawful to dredge for terrapins.

Section 114. On information given to a justice of the peace of Kent county, he shall issue his warrant for the arrest of the offender and the seizure of the boat, together with all her tackle and apparel and all other property on board and in his possession, which warrant shall be directed to the sheriff or some constable of such county, who may summon a posse comitatus to aid him in making any such arrest and seizure.

Warrant to be issued.

Section 116. The property so condemned shall be sold by the officer making the seizure on ten days' notice, by written or printed advertisements stuck up in not less than two public places, and the proceeds of sale, with all fines imposed and collected, after paying the costs of the seizure, condemnation and sale, shall be divided, one-fourth to the officer making the arrest and seizure; one-fourth to those aiding in making the arrest and seizure, and the remaining one-half to the board of School Commissioners of Kent county, for the use of the schools of said county.

Property condemned to be sold.