

CHAP 547

the 16th day of November, in the third year of the dominion of the Right Honorable Henry Harford, Esquire, absolute Lord and Proprietor of the Provinces of Maryland, and ended the 23d day of December A. D. 1773, entitled an Act for the division of Baltimore county and for erecting a new one by the name of Harford.

Boundary lines established.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following boundary line between Baltimore and Harford counties is hereby established, to wit: Beginning at a point in the present boundary line between said counties at the mouth of the Gunpowder river, and running thence up said river along the present boundary line to the south end of the gut or channel between Edel's Island No. 1 and Edel's Island No. 2, as described in the two several patents from the State of Maryland to Samuel T. Edel, Jr., and others, both bearing date the 2d day October, 1903; thence up said gut or channel to the north end thereof, and leaving the same, up the Gunpowder river to the place of beginning, as defined in Section 2 of Chapter 6 of the Acts of 1773, entitled an Act for the division of Baltimore county and for erecting a new one by the name of Harford.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 3, 1906.

CHAPTER 548.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact with amendments Chapter 266 of the Acts of 1904, entitled "An Act regulating certain Primary Elections in Harford County, in the State of Maryland."

Regulating primary elections in Harford county.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the political parties which at the general election held on November 7, 1905, polled ten per cent. of the entire vote cast in Harford county shall hereafter in the year 1907, and biennially thereafter nominate their candidates for all local offices to be voted for at a general election in 1907, and biennially thereafter, including candidates for the Senate and members of the House of Delegates, by means of primary election conducted under the provisions of this
