

Act, and not otherwise; said candidates may be nominated by direct vote of the duly registered voters belonging to or acting with said parties in each precinct of said county, or they may be nominated by county convention, the delegates to which shall be elected at primary elections duly held in the different precincts of said county; providing, however, that the nomination of candidates for the office of County Commissioner they shall be voted for in the district in which they reside, and a majority of the votes of that district shall determine the candidate of the party to be voted for at the succeeding general election; said primary elections shall be held on the third Saturday in June in the year 1907, and biennially on that date thereafter.

CHAP. 548

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the board of supervisors of election at least fifteen days before the third Saturday in June in the year 1907, and biennially thereafter, to select four judges and two clerks, taking two of said judges and one of said clerks from each of the said political parties, to act as the judges and clerks in the primaries to be held in each election precinct of said county; and the said board of supervisors of elections shall give notice by publication of the names of all of said judges and clerks and the precincts for which they are selected by causing the same to be published by two insertions in two of the weekly newspapers printed in Harford county, one of said papers, if possible, being of opposite political faith from that of a majority of said board of supervisors of election.

Duty of political partiesList of judges advertised.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That said board of supervisors of election in appointing the judges and clerks, and in the notice thereof, shall designate the persons intended by them to represent the said political parties, respectively; challengers and watchers representing the candidates of said parties shall be allowed to be present at the several voting places during the voting and counting of the ballots.

Designation of officers.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the form of the ballots with the names of the candidates or delegates to be voted for, for the several offices to be filled, shall be furnished by the governing bodies of the said political parties to the said supervisors of elections at least ten days before the third Saturday in June, 1907, and biennially thereafter.

Form of ballots.