

any omnibus, carriage or other vehicle for carrying passengers in said town ; provided, that no proprietor of any livery stable who pays a license to the town as proprietor thereof shall be required to take another license for omnibus or other vehicles to carry passengers in the town, as aforesaid. (17) All vendors or dealers in horses or mules, whether the parties be residents or otherwise ; provided, that the proprietors of a livery stable may sell the same without any additional license. (18) The promoters of any public auction of horses, mules or any other goods and chattels ; persons having a livery stable license shall not be exempt from this license. (19) All undertakers. (20) The proprietors or publishers of any newspaper. (21) All real estate brokers. (22) All telephone and telegraph companies having offices in the said town and doing business therein. (23) All practicing physicians residing in said town practicing their profession therein. (24) All attorneys at law having an office in said town. (25) All persons keeping a hotel or saloon where intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors are sold ; said license not to exceed three hundred dollars per annum for each place where liquors are sold.

CHAP. 549

Annual
license or permit
granted.

SEC. 215 F. To encourage manufacturers in said town, the Mayor and Council are authorized, when they see fit so to do, to exempt the plant of any manufacturing company or association hereafter located within the corporate limits of said town from taxation for corporate purposes for five years, but any ordinance, resolution or contract which exempts any property, except such as a manufacturing plant, or for a period for longer than five years, shall be absolutely null and void in all respects whatever.

Exemption of plants, etc.

Section 215 G. The taxes imposed in the annual levy by the Mayor and Council shall be collectible by action at law or by proceeding against the property under seizure by way of distress or execution at any time within four years after such taxes become due and in arrears, and not afterward, unless the person or persons charged with the taxes shall extend the time of payment by an express promise to pay the same, in which case they may be so collected at any time within three years after the new promise.

How
collectible.

Section 215 H. The title to all real, leasehold and personal property belonging to the town shall be vested in the Mayor