

passed at the Session of 1892, be and the same is hereby repealed, and that the following be and is hereby enacted in lieu thereof and as a substitute therefor, and that a new section be and it is hereby added to said Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Frederick County," sub-title "Frederick," to follow immediately after said Section 254, and to be known as Section 254 A, and to read respectively, as follows :

CHAP. 550

New section
added.

254. The taxable limits of Frederick city shall be as follows : Beginning at a large granite stone lettered No. 1, B. C. T. L., planted and standing on the west side of the Frederick and Woodsborough turnpike road, 187½ feet north of city taxable limits, as the same were established by Act of Assembly 1892, Chapter 359, and running thence south seventy-seven and one-half degrees east by and with a tangent two thousand five and four and three-tenths feet to a large stone now planted and marked No. 2, standing in John E. Price's field ; thence by an angle of deflection to the right seventy-eight degrees seventeen minutes and by and with a tangent of four thousand six hundred and twenty feet to a planted stone No. 3, standing on the north side of the Frederick and Baltimore turnpike, and at the end of a line drawn north eighty-four degrees west twelve feet from the southwest corner of the Frederick county agricultural grounds ; thence crossing the aforesaid Frederick and Baltimore turnpike and with an angle of deflection to the right of thirty-seven degrees forty-seven minutes, and by and with a tangent of two thousand seven hundred and thirty feet to a large granite stone No. 4, now planted ; thence by an angle of deflection to the right of fifty-three degrees twelve minutes and a tangent of two thousand seven hundred and thirteen feet to a stone No. 5, planted in the inside of the southern driveway in Mt. Olivet cemetery ; thence with an angle of deflection of twenty-seven degrees forty-one minutes to the right and with a tangent of three thousand six hundred and twenty-two feet to a planted stone on the east side of Frederick and Jefferson turnpike road in front of the residence of the late John Rizer ; thence across said turnpike by an angle of forty-seven degrees forty-three minutes to the right and with a tangent of one thousand two hundred and twenty and one-tenth feet to a planted stone standing by the side of a stone fence at its

Taxable limits
of Frederick.