

CHAP. 96

and if the said justice be not present at the time of the opening of the polls for said election, the commissioners, or a majority of them, may hold the same if anything shall prevent said election from being held on the day appointed, the commissioners shall appoint another day for holding the same, and shall give notice thereof at least five days previous thereto, and in case of death, removal or resignation, the commissioners shall fill all vacancies in their body which may happen within the year.

Time of meeting.

Treasurer appointed.

Statement to be prepared.

Section 157. And be it enacted, That the said commissioners shall meet annually on the first Monday in April, and on the first Monday in every month thereafter, and as much oftener as they think proper; not less than a majority shall constitute a board for transaction of any business, excepting adjournment. At their first regular meeting in April they shall appoint one of their number as town treasurer for a term of one year, whose duty shall be to receive and receipt for all taxes, fines and other moneys collected by the tax collector, bailiffs or other officers of said town of Millington; and should said commissioners for any reason be prevented from appointing a treasurer, as aforesaid, at their first regular meeting in April of each year, or if the commissioner so appointed declines to serve or fails to give bond as herein-after provided within twenty days, or should any vacancy occur in said office, they may appoint another of their board treasurer at their first regular meeting in the succeeding month in the place of such treasurer first so appointed, who may have declined said office or failed to have filed the required bond, or to fill said vacancy for the remainder of the current year for which said treasurer was elected. All books, papers and documents belonging to the treasurer's office are the property of said commissioners, and at all times subject to examination by said commissioners, or any of them; and the said treasurer shall annually prepare a statement, which shall be publicly posted, showing an abstract of taxes levied for the previous fiscal year, all money collected for licenses, all fines and total income from every source, and also the expenditures for the year, stating each class of expenditures, and the balance due to or from said commissioners. And the treasurer elected or appointed as aforesaid shall give satisfactory bond to the said commissioners in the penalty of double the amount of taxes levied for the current fiscal year
