

CHAP. 578

Proviso.

that if there be no qualified justice of the peace in the election district in which the offender resides or in which the crime or offense arose, then the justice of the peace of any election district shall have jurisdiction to issue his warrant for trying such offender in the manner prescribed by law; and provided, further, that the qualified justices of the peace of the town of Frostburg and Cumberland shall have jurisdiction to try offenses arising in their respective towns; and provided, further, that the qualified justices of the peace of election districts, numbered 10, 15, 27 and 25 shall have concurrent jurisdiction to try offenses arising in any one of said election districts, and that upon the suggestion in writing of the State's attorney of Allegany county that the interest of justice so require, such warrant may be issued by any magistrate of the county, and if it has been issued before such suggestion of the State's attorney, such case may be removed to some other justice of the peace by the magistrate who first issued his warrant in the premises, and it shall not be lawful for any magistrate to issue his warrant against any resident of said county authorizing his arrest, or to try any such offender after his arrest unless the alleged offender shall reside in said election district, or the offense or crime complained of shall have arisen in the election district for which such justice of the peace has been appointed; provided, however, that if there be no justice of the peace in the election district in which the offender resides, or in which the crime or offense arose, then the justice of the peace of any adjoining district shall have jurisdiction to issue his warrant for and try such offender in the manner prescribed by law.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 5, 1906.

CHAPTER 579.

AN ACT to change the name of the Interstate Trust and Guaranty Company, of Cumberland, Maryland, to the Interstate Trust Company.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the name of the Interstate Trust and Guaranty Company, incorporated by an Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, passed at the January Session of nineteen changed.

Name