CHAPTER 581.

AN ACT for the relief of J. Edward Kirby and Kate Kirby, being an Act directing Louis Janowitz, administrator of J. Edward Kirby, Jr., deceased, to pay over to them the estate of said deceased now in his hands, and amounting to two hundred and twenty-seven dollars and nineteen cents ($227.19).

Preamble. WHEREAS, J. Edward Kirby and Kate Kirby, his wife, of Baltimore city, about 1859 adopted a waif then six months old, found on the public streets of Baltimore, named him J. Edward Kirby, Jr., and raised and educated him, and he always thought he was the legitimate off-spring of his foster parents, and treated them as if they were his parents; and

WHEREAS, In March, 1903, the said J. Edward Kirby, Jr. died intestate, unmarried and without issue; and

WHEREAS, Had he known the fact that his small accumulations would go to the public school fund of Maryland in case of his death intestate and without issue, it is believed he would have willed his estate to his foster parents, who are now old and poor; and

WHEREAS, The State treasury officials have recommended the payment of the money hereinafter mentioned; therefore,

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Louis Janowitz, administrator of the estate of J. Edward Kirby, Jr., be and he is hereby authorized and directed to pay over to J. Edward Kirby and Kate Kirby the estate in his hands of the said J. Edward Kirby, Jr., deceased, amounting to two hundred and twenty-seven dol-

Authorized to pay over a certain sum of money.
