the same, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars; all such fines shall be paid into the city treasury.

Report shall be taken as prima facie correct.

Section 79 m. Any such report of said certified public accountant as is mentioned in the Section 79 k of this Act shall be taken as prima facie correct in any suit or settlement between said city and any of the officers herein mentioned. The said certified public accountant shall be paid out of the city treasury for his services herein prescribed a sum not to exceed the sum of ten dollars for each day he is actually occupied in said work; provided, however, that for the year 1906 not more than one hundred days shall be allowed for said work, and each year thereafter not more than thirty days shall be allowed for said work. The Mayor shall have full power to regulate the duties of said certified public accountant; and before he shall be entitled to payment for said services he shall make out an account against said city showing the exact number of days he was actually engaged in said work, and make oath thereto in due form of law; said account of said certified public accountant shall then be presented to the City Council, and if found to be correct shall be ordered to be paid out of the money in the city treasury.

And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 3, 1906.

CHAPTER 706.

AN ACT to declare the sanction and consent of the General Assembly of Maryland to sundry gifts, bequests and devises contained in the last wills and testaments of certain persons late of the State of Maryland, deceased, and also to certain gifts, grants, sales, leases and deeds made by various persons in this State, to and for the use and benefit of sundry ministerial persons, religious denominations, corporations or sects, and to certain charitable institutions.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sanction and consent of the General Assembly
