

CHAP. 707

Glass ballot
boxes to be used.Judges and
clerks
appointed.Pay of judges and clerks.

cast a ballot with the words "For License" or "Against License," printed or written thereon, as the voter shall see fit. The supervisors of election shall also furnish and deliver to one of the judges of said election before the opening of the polls a glass ballot box of the kind now used in said Charles county, in which the said ballots are to be deposited at said election. The result of said election in each district shall be counted and returns made out at the close of the polls, and the result certified by the said judges and clerks to the said supervisors of elections of Charles county, who shall meet at the county seat of said Charles county for that purpose on Thursday, April 26, 1906, at ten o'clock A. M. The said supervisors of election of said county shall not later than the third Tuesday of April in the year 1906 select two judges and two clerks for each election district of said county, and duly notify the same, one clerk and one judge to represent each of the opposing sides, to be selected, if required, from a list of four names as presented by any organization which may be, in the meantime, affected, to represent the respective sides of the matter in issue at the said election. On the Thursday succeeding said election, one of the judges, who shall be designated by the supervisors, shall convey the returns of the said election and the ballot boxes to the board of supervisors of election, who shall meet at the county seat at ten o'clock A. M. on that day for that purpose, as aforesaid. The said supervisors of election shall then tabulate and count up the returns as made up by said judges and clerks, and proclaim the result by publication in two newspapers published in said county, in the same week during which the said election shall be held, and shall also certify to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Charles county the result of said election. The judges and clerks of election, appointed as aforesaid, shall be paid two dollars ($2.00) per day, and any judge or clerk who shall refuse or fail to serve shall be subject to a fine of twenty-five dollars, upon conviction, before a justice of the peace of said county. In case any judge or clerk shall fail to serve as such officer of election, the officer of election who shall attend shall fill the vacancy or vacancies by appointment of a person or persons who represent the same side as that for which the vacancy shall occur, and they shall fill such vacancies if required from a list of three names submitted by persons present at the election,