

who shall bona fide represent the side as to which the said vacancy shall occur; the polls shall be opened at eight o'clock A. M. and close at six o'clock P. M.

CHAP. 707

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That if at the said election there shall be more votes cast in said county against license than there are for license, then the provision of this Act shall go into effect and continue in force in said county on and after the 30th day of April, 1907, and no license shall thereafter be issued for the sale of any intoxicating liquors as defined herein; and any person or persons, corporation, company or association who shall thereafter sell any intoxicating liquors of any kind whatsoever as hereinbefore defined, or who shall give away any such liquor on any day on which an election is being held, or on Sunday, or at any other time, except at his own house in the way of private entertainment, shall be subject to a fine for each and every offense, of not less than fifty dollars nor more than two hundred dollars, or shall be imprisoned in the House of Correction for not less than one month nor more than six months, or by both fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court or of the justice of the peace, who shall have jurisdiction of the offense under this Act, as in case of other misdemeanors punishable otherwise than by confinement in the penitentiary. In case there shall be more votes cast for license than there are against license in said county, then licenses shall continue to be issued in accordance with the provisions of law hereinafter made in this Act.

Unlawful to sell or give away liquor
on Sunday or
election day,
etc.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That Chapter 623 of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1902, entitled an Act to regulate the sale of spirituous and fermented liquors in Charles county, and to repeal Sections 55 to 89, inclusive, of Article 56 of the Code of Public General Laws, title "Licenses," sub-title "Spirituous and Fermented Liquors by retailers," so far as the same apply to Charles county, and to add certain sections to Article 9 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Charles County," sub-title "Spirituous and Fermented Liquors," to be numbered Sections 195 and 196, be repealed and the following sections be enacted in lieu thereof to constitute a new sub-title, designated "Intoxicating Liquors," the said sections to be known as 116 A, 116 B, and 116 C.

Repeal.

New sections
added.

Section 116 A. From and after the passage of this Act no intoxicating liquors of any kind shall be sold in Charles