

Section 116. In addition to other penalties herein provided, any person convicted of a violation of this Act under either of the three preceding sections shall be and is hereby denied the right to take out any license to dredge, scrape or tong for oysters in any of the waters of this State for the period of three years after said conviction.

CHAP. 711

Penalties prescribed.

Section 117. It shall be the duty of all officers and members of the State Fishery Force to arrest persons violating this Act, and to patrol such waters of the Chesapeake bay and its tributaries as they may be directed by the Board of Public Works to patrol, for the purpose of preventing violations of this Act.

Arrest persons violating this Act.

Section 118. The revenues arising from the operation of this Act shall be applied in the following manner: First, to the payment of all salaries, expenses, surveys, outlays and disbursements authorized by this Act; second, the balance, if any, to be paid at the end of each year into the treasury of the State, leaving, however, a balance at the end of each year of ten thousand dollars with the Board of Shell Fish Commissioners, to be applied to the current expenses of its office for the ensuing year. All moneys so paid as aforesaid into the treasury of the State shall be placed to the credit of a special fund, called the "Special Road Fund."

How revenues shall be applied.

Section 119. The Board of Shell Fish Commissioners shall annually prepare and publish in pamphlet form a full report of its transactions during the year prior thereto, as well as a statement of the operations of this Act, and an account of the receipts and disbursements hereunder. The said report shall also contain a detailed statement of the lands leased under this Act, with the names of the lessees. The said commissioners shall also in its reports make such recommendations as it may deem proper concerning further legislation or changes in the present oyster laws, and shall present the said reports to the General Assembly of Maryland.

Annual report to be prepared.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage, and all laws of Maryland inconsistent with this Act shall be and the same are hereby repealed.

Repeal.

Approved April 2, 1906.