

OHAP. 724

Duties of supervisors
of elections.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the supervisors of election of Montgomery county shall cause to be made, before the 1st day of July in the year 1907, a complete alphabetical list of the qualified voters in each election district of Montgomery county in the order of their registration; and in those districts in which there is more than one voting precinct, said list shall be made out according to the precincts; said list shall be made out in books specially provided for the purpose, and upon the left hand page of which shall appear the names of the voters, their color, date of registration and age at date of last registration, in appropriate columns, and the right hand page shall be ruled in double vertical columns, sufficient in number for at least ten primary elections, so that, as persons vote in the primary elections of the respective parties in any year, the letter "V" can be properly entered in the column of the party in whose primary election each person votes; and it shall be the duty of said supervisors of election, before the 1st day of July in each alternate year, counting from the year 1907, to cause such primary election registration list to be carefully posted and corrected so as to conform to the registration books of the several election districts used at the general election held in said county.

Primary elections
how conducted.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the primary elections held under this Act shall be conducted by three judges and two clerks in each election district of the county, who shall be selected by the governing bodies of said parties respectively; provided, however, that one judge in each district shall be selected from the officers of registration of said district; and the said officer of registration selected shall be the return judge of the election at which he officiates.

Ballots.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That the ballots to be used at all primary elections to be held hereunder shall be of opaque white paper and of uniform size.

Ballot boxes,
etc.,
provided.

SEC. 7. And be it enacted, That the board of election supervisors of Montgomery county shall before each primary election held under the provisions of this Act, provide each return judge herein provided for with one of the ballot boxes used at the general elections held in said county, and with the primary election register provided for his election district.