

CHAP. 760

New sections added.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That a new section be added to the aforesaid Chapter 199 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland for the Session of 1904, entitled as aforesaid, to be numbered as Section 10, and to read as follows :

Proceed to levy for all taxes due.

Section 10. And be it enacted, That for the collection of all taxes for State and county purposes, at such time after the first day of January of the year succeeding the levy of the same, as herebefore set forth in Section 7, as the County Commissioners shall designate in writing to the said treasurer, he shall proceed to give the notice in the manner and form required of collectors under existing law, in all cases in which he shall have not already given the same, to the effect that he will, after the expiration of thirty days, proceed to levy for all taxes due, and sell all property on which taxes are due and in arrears, said notice to be in substance the same as that required by Section 49 of Article 81 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, entitled "Revenue and Taxes;" and at the expiration of said time the said treasurer shall levy, in person or by his assistant, or by the sheriff of said county, or a duly authorized deputy of said sheriff, on all property for which taxes shall be due and in arrears in said Charles county, and shall advertise all of said property in such newspaper or newspapers as the County Commissioners shall designate, and shall proceed to sell the same at the courthouse on such day or days, not later than thirty days from said advertisement, as may be designated; and all of the property in Charles county for which taxes may be due and in arrears shall be advertised and sold upon the same day or days, not to include more than three days for the said purpose; the said County Commissioners shall fix the compensation for the levy upon all such property and fix the amount to be paid for advertising the same in one or more newspapers, as they shall see fit to designate; the form of advertisement of said property shall be fixed by the said County Commissioners, under the advice of their attorney; there shall be no less than twenty days' notice of such sales; no such sale shall be set aside, however, because of formal defects or errors in any advertisement of the same, nor because the treasurer shall fail to advertise the property of all delinquent taxpayers at the same time. In case the County Commissioners cannot procure
