

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 37 and 56 H of Article 22 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, title "Washington County," sub-title "Boonsboro," as repealed and amended and re-enacted by Chapter 219 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of the Acts of 1904, be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted, so as to read as follows :

CHAP. 112

Repeal and re-enact.

Section 37. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the taxable limits of the town of Boonsboro are declared to be as follows : Beginning at the east margin of the turnpike leading from Boonsboro to Middletown, and at a point twelve perches northward from the intersection of said turnpike with the public road leading to the old foundry, and running thence north sixty-three and one-half degrees east thirty perches, north twenty-two degrees west fifty-four perches, north twenty-two degrees east sixty-six perches, north six and one-half degrees east forty-eight perches, north seventy-two degrees west sixty perches, south seventeen degrees west thirty perches, south sixty-five degrees west ten perches, north twenty-two degrees west seventy-four and one-half perches, south sixty-eight degrees west seventy-five perches, south twenty-two degrees east seventy-four and one-half perches, south sixty-eight degrees west ninety-one and one-half perches, south twenty-two degrees east sixty-nine and one-half perches, passing on the east side of John L. Nicodemus' house north sixty-eight degrees east seventy-six perches, to the northeast corner of the cemetery there bounding on the cemetery south twenty-two degrees east thirty-five perches, north sixty-eight degrees east twenty perches; then leaving the cemetery south twenty-two degrees east thirty-nine perches, south thirty-seven degrees east eighteen perches, north sixty-three and one-half degrees east thirty-seven perches, to the place of beginning.

Taxable limits of the town.

Section 56 H. The bailiff appointed for the enforcement of the ordinances of the town and the preservation of its peace and good order shall have all the powers of constables; and any person resisting a bailiff in the discharge of his duty shall be liable, upon conviction, to punishment in the same measure and to the same extent as if he had resisted a constable, and any bailiff so appointed who shall be guilty of Bailiff has rights of constable.