

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 99 of Article 23 of the Code of Public General Laws be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, to read as follows :

CHAP. 118

Repeal and re-enact.

Section 99. In case any such corporation, now or hereafter doing business in this State, shall refuse or neglect to make the deposit hereinafter provided for, the treasurer shall immediately publish in a daily newspaper published in Baltimore city and in the county wherein said corporation's principal office is supposed to be located, a notice informing the public that said corporation has not complied with the law, and, therefore, is not a legal corporation, and warning the public that all acts of the said corporation are illegal and void until it has complied with the corporation laws of the State. The Treasurer shall also report the fact to the Attorney General, who shall thereupon immediately institute proceedings to enjoin and restrain such corporation from transacting any business in this State, and the court before which such proceedings shall be begun shall be authorized to pass such order or decree, and to issue such process in the premises to enforce the compliance of such corporation with the provisions of this statute, or to restrain the transaction of business by such corporation in this State as it may deem proper. For each and every day that said corporation attempts to transact business in this State without having complied with the requirements of Section 98, it shall forfeit to the State of Maryland the sum of one hundred dollars; said sum to be collected as any other debt. Nothing in this section shall apply to national banks.

Notice of warning to be published in daily newspaper.

Approved March 22, 1906.
