

CHAP. 120

Unlawful to sell without license.

Section 127 F. And be it enacted, That any person who may be found engaged in buying or bartering for any of the articles specified in Section 1 of this Act, or commonly called and known as junk, without a license as herein provided, without being a manufacturer as provided in Section 127 A of this Act, or without being an agent in charge of a wagon owned and operated by a licensed person, at any place within the limits of Talbot county, may be apprehended by any sheriff or constable, either upon view or information and warrant duly issued, to apprehend him and carry him before a justice of the peace of Talbot county having criminal jurisdiction.

Fine imposed.

Section 127 G. And be it enacted, That if it shall appear to the justice of the peace before whom such person shall be carried after legal trial, that such person has violated any of the provisions of this Act, he shall be fined fifty dollars and costs of prosecution, to be recovered as other fines are recoverable in the State of Maryland; said fines to be paid to the County Commissioners of Talbot county.

Reward given.

Section 127 H. And be it enacted, That for every apprehension and conviction of any person under this Act, the sheriff, constable or other person giving the information that leads to the conviction of such person, shall be entitled to receive one-half of the fine imposed upon the convicted person.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect on the first day of May, A. D. 1906.

Approved March 22, 1906.

CHAPTER 121.

AN ACT to exempt from location or appropriation for the planting of shells or seed oysters, all grassy bottoms under the waters of Somerset County, suitable for catching soft shell or shedder crabs, and to forfeit all such lots as may have been already appropriated or located for such purpose, where no shells or seed oysters have been planted thereon.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to
