

CHAP. 148 of the State of Maryland between the first day of November and the first day of May next succeeding in each and every year.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That any person or persons violating any of the preceding sections of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof before any justice of the peace shall be fined in a sum of not less than ten dollars nor more than twenty-five dollars, or be confined in the county jail of the county in which said offense was committed for not more than three months, or be both fined and imprisoned, in the discretion of the justice of the peace or the court trying the same.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the State fishery force and all other officers of the law to assist in the enforcement of this Act.

SEC. 4. Be it further enacted, That in all prosecutions arising under this Act wherein a fine or fines shall be collected, one-half of said fine or fines shall go to the informer or informers; provided, said informer or informers is not an officer of the State fishery force or any other officer of the law.

SEC. 5. Be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage, and all laws of Maryland inconsistent with this Act, be and the same are hereby repealed.

Approved March 23, 1906.

CHAPTER 149.

AN ACT to preserve the county roads of the Thirteenth Election District of Baltimore County by regulating the width of tires and character of all carts and wagons hauling swill for cattle, bricks, clay, sand and gravel over said roads.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That for the purpose of preserving the county roads of the Thirteenth Election District of Baltimore county all carts and wagons hauling swill for cattle, bricks, clay, sand or gravel over said roads in said district of said county shall have wheels with tires not less than four inches in width.