

CHAP. 170

Mayor or president of the City Council, that a majority of said votes had been cast "Against License," then the following sections shall be in force in the said town of Laurel, Prince George's county.

Unlawful to give away,
sell or barter
intoxicating
drinks.

SEC. 5. It shall not be lawful after the thirtieth day of April, 1906, should the majority of the vote cast be against license, for any person or persons of any house, company, association, club or body corporate, his, her, its or their agents, officers, clerks or servants, directly or indirectly, within the limits of the said town of Laurel, as defined by the Act of 1870, Chapter 260, to sell or barter, or solicit or receive orders for the purchase of any spirituous or fermented liquors, or alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks of any kind, ale or lager beer, ambrosia, schnapps or gin, hard cider or pear cider, or any article used as a beverage in the composition of which whiskey, brandy, high wines or alcohol, or any spirituous or fermented liquors shall be an ingredient, nor to give the same away at his, her, its or their place of business in the course of, or as an inducement to, trade within said town, nor shall the clerk of the Circuit Court for Prince George's County issue any license for the sale of liquor at any place within the limits of said town. Nor shall any person or persons, house, company, association, club or body corporate, keep or have in in his, her, its or their possession, with intent to barter, sell or give away the same in the course of trade at any place of business, or to induce or encourage business, or with intent that the same shall be bartered or sold, any spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters or intoxicating drinks of any kind, beer, ale, schnapps or gin, hard cider or pear cider, ambrosia or any beverage intoxicating in its ingredients, at any place or places whatever within the limits of the said town of Laurel.

Guilty of misdemeanor.

SEC. 6. If any person or persons, house, company, association, club or body corporate, his, her, its or their agents, officers, clerks or servants shall violate the provisions of the preceding section within the limits of said town, he, she, it or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and he, she, it or they shall on each and every conviction thereof forfeit and pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars and the costs of prosecution, or be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for not less
