

SEC. 10. And be it enacted, That no person, corporation or company shall at any time kill or expose for sale, transport or have in possession any partridge or quail, wood-cock or rabbit, dead or alive, for any purpose except for consumption as food in Somerset county, or for propagating purposes, as hereinbefore provided for; nor kill, expose for sale, or have in possession any of the above named game, with the intention of sending or transporting or having the same sent or transported, beyond the limits of said county, under a penalty of not less than five, nor more than twenty-five dollars for each and every violation of this section; provided, that nothing herein contained shall prevent the barter and sale of such game for home consumption only by and between residents of said county within the limits thereof.

CHAP. 219

Game law.

SEC. 11. And be it enacted, That all violations of the provisions of the various sections of this Act shall be deemed misdemeanors, and the fines and penalties imposed thereby shall be collected by prosecutions before any justice of the peace for Somerset county, with right of appeal to the Circuit Court thereof, and the defendant or defendants in such prosecutions, in default of the payment of said fines and penalties, shall be committed to jail for thirty days; and all fines collected by said court or any justice of the peace for said county, upon prosecutions as aforesaid, shall be paid in full to the party who informs against the offender or offenders and secures his or their conviction.

Misdemeanor.

SEC. 12. And be it enacted, That it shall be the duty of the sheriff, any deputy sheriff or game warden of Somerset county to arrest and bring to trial any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this Act.

Duty of sheriff, etc.

SEC. 13. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30, 1906.

CHAPTER 220.

Dead.

CHAPTER 221.

An ACT to add an additional Section to Article 16 of the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Montgomery County," sub-title "Rockville," to follow immediately after Section 212 of said Article, and to be designated as Section 212 A.