

CHAP. 223

Board of directors.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That the members of this corporation shall, annually, on the first Tuesday of December, or on such other day as may be fixed at a general meeting of such members, elect from its membership, not less than seven directors, who, together with the president, secretary and treasurer of said association, to be elected by said seven directors, or a majority thereof, shall constitute the board of directors of said association, and said board so constituted shall have charge of and manage the affairs of said association and the election of their successors.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30, 1906.

CHAPTER 224.

AN ACT for the better protection of partridges, quail, pheasants and rabbits in Harford County.

Game law.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That no person shall trap, shoot or in any manner catch or kill or expose for sale or have in possession any partridge or quail, ruffed grouse, commonly called pheasant, skunk, squirrel or rabbit within the limits of Harford county for the period of one year from the date of the passage of this Act.

Subject to arrest.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That each and every person violating any of the provisions of the preceding section shall be subject to arrest by any person authorized by law to make the same, or upon a warrant issued by any justice of the peace of said county, and upon conviction, shall be fined ten dollars for each offense, and each partridge or quail or grouse or pheasant, or skunk or squirrel or rabbit shot or trapped, taken or exposed for sale, shall be deemed a separate offense under said section, one-half of said fine to be paid to the informer, and the balance to the County Commissioners for the use of the school fund.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 30, 1906.
