CHAPTER 226.

AN ACT to appropriate a sum of money to refund Lucinda Teat for money paid into the Treasury of the State of Maryland on account of the forfeiture of the bail of Eugene Teat.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, The said Lucinda Teat became bail for one Eugene Teat, conditioned for his appearance to the November term of court for Queen Anne's county, Maryland, to answer the charge of larceny ; and

WHEREAS, The said Eugene Teat failed to appear at said session of court and the bail was forfeited, and paid by the said Lucinda Teat to the sheriff of Queen Anne's county, and by said sheriff the sum of two hundred and fifty-three dollars and ninety-seven cents was paid into the treasury of the State of Maryland, on account of money received by the aforesaid sheriff for said forfeiture of bail ; and

WHEREAS, The said Eugene Teat was afterwards apprehended and convicted upon the same charge for which said bail was forfeited, and sentenced by the Circuit Court for Queen Anne's county, Maryland, to three years in the Maryland Penitentiary, at the May term of court of 1904, the next succeeding court after the forfeiture of the bail aforementioned ; and

WHEREAS, The ends of justice have been subserved and the State satisfied by the aforesaid apprehension and conviction, it is fair and equitable that the aforesaid sum of money should be refunded to the said Lucinda Teat,
