

person to catch or kill any dove between the first day of January and the first day of August next ensuing, nor shall it be lawful for any person or persons to shoot, trap, or catch, kill or have in their possession any of the before-mentioned birds and game (wood or summer ducks excepted), when snow is on the ground.

CHAP. 230

Section 35 A. It shall not be lawful for any person to ship out of said county or to receive for shipment out of said county at any time any quail, partridge, rabbit, woodcock, squirrel or dove, but any person travelling or going out of said county may carry with him or her as a part of his or her personal baggage not more than twelve quail or partridge, six rabbits, six woodcock, six squirrels and six doves at any one time, provided that said game when so carried shall be carried in such manner as to disclose to the public the kind and quality of game so carried out of said county, but in no case shall it be lawful to carry said game in any quantity or quantities out of said county for the purpose of sale.

Game law.

Section 36. That any person who shall be convicted before any justice of the peace for violating the preceding sections, or either of them, shall pay a fine of $10, for each and every quail, partridge, rabbit, woodcock, squirrel, summer or wood-duck, or dove shot or in any manner caught, killed, carried, shipped, received for shipment, or found in their possession, or for any quail or partridge trapped, or for any quail or partridge eggs or nests wilfully or maliciously molested or destroyed, contrary to the preceding sections or either of them, and in default of the payment of the fine imposed hereunder, together with the costs, shall be committed to the county jail until the fine and costs are paid.

Fine imposed.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 31, 1906.

---

CHAPTER 231.

Dead.

---

CHAPTER 232.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact Sections 1 and 2 of Chapter 77 of the Act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled "A supplement to Chapter 159 of the Acts of 1812."