

CHAP. 232

Board of trustees.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Sections 1 and 2 of Chapter 77 of the Acts of 1825 be and the same are hereby repealed and re-enacted as follows: That the board of trustees of West Nottingham Academy, in Cecil county, shall consist of thirteen members, nine to be residents of Cecil county, Maryland, and the remaining four residents of and citizens of the United States; that any vacancy in said board of trustees of West Nottingham Academy now existing or which may hereafter be occasioned by the death or resignation or disqualification of any member of the said board shall be filled by the remaining members of said board of trustees, and said board of trustees shall elect the four additional members of said board authorized by this Act.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 31, 1906.

---

CHAPTER 233.

Dead.

---

CHAPTER 234.

AN ACT to carry into effect Section 39 of Article 4 of the Constitution, so far as the same concerns an increase in the number of Judges of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City.

Judge to be elected.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That, in pursuance of Section 39 of Article 4 of the Constitution, there shall be elected another judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City by the legal and qualified voters of said city at the election to be held in said city on the Tuesday after the first Monday in November, 1906, and the judge to be voted for under this section shall be voted for as "Additional Judge of the Supreme Bench," and shall be so marked on the official ballot, and when said judge shall be so elected he shall be subject to all the provisions of the constitution relating to the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City and the several judges thereof, and shall be assigned to the performance of such judicial duties as the said Supreme Bench shall from time to time indicate.