

organized or doing business, or which may be committed to it by any court in the State of Maryland, in the United States, in any one of the States of the United States, or in any colony, province or dependency of the United States, or which may be committed to it by any court in any foreign country or government, or in any colony, province, department, city or county of any foreign government; and to accept the office and appointment of executor or administrator of any kind or nature whenever such office or appointment is made by any person or persons, or by any Orphans' Court or other court, either of the State of Maryland or of any other State, or of the United States, or of any colony, province or dependency of the United States, or of any foreign country or government, or of any colony, province, department, city or county of any foreign government; and that in all cases where application shall be made to any court of this State, or of any other State, or of the United States, or of any colony, province or dependency of the United States, or of any foreign country or government, or of any colony, province, department, city or county of any foreign government for the appointment of any receiver, curator, trustee, administrator, executor, assignee, guardian, committee or of any other fiduciary, it shall and may be lawful for such court, if it shall think fit, to appoint with its assent such receiver, curator, trustee, administrator, executor, assignee, guardian, committee or other fiduciary, and the accounts of said company, as such receiver, curator, trustee, administrator, executor, assignee, guardian, committee or other fiduciary shall be regularly adjusted and settled before the tribunal having jurisdiction thereof, and upon such settlement and adjustment all proper, legal and customary charges, costs and expenses shall be allowed to said company for its care and management of the trusts and estates aforesaid; and such company, as such receiver, curator, trustee, administrator, executor, assignee, guardian, committee or other fiduciary, shall be subject to all orders and decrees made by the proper tribunal, under the laws of the place where the appointment is made.

CHAP. 238

General powers of a corporation.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That when any court, person, company or corporation aforesaid shall appoint said company a receiver, curator, trustee, administrator, executor, assignee, guardian, committee or other fiduciary, or shall