

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 62 of Article 1 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland, entitled "Allegany County," subtitle "Cumberland," as repealed and re-enacted with amendments by Chapter 56 of the Acts of 1892 of the General Assembly of Maryland, be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted with amendments, so as to read as follows :

CHAP. 247

Repeal and re-enact.

Section 62. The Mayor shall by virtue of his office see that the ordinances of the city are duly and faithfully executed. He shall appoint subject to the confirmation of the City Council all the officers of said city who are not made elective by the people or the City Council, except the city treasurer and collector, who shall be elected by the City Council, and excepting the water rent collector and superintendent and all other employes and officers of the water department, who shall be appointed and be under the control of the board of water commissioners hereinafter provided for, and excepting also the police magistrate, who shall be appointed as follows : The Mayor shall on the first Monday of June, 1906, and every two months thereafter designate one of the justices of the peace having jurisdiction in the city of Cumberland to act as police magistrate for the period of two months, and no justice shall be named for a second period of two months until all of the said justices have in turn served a period of two months as police magistrate. He shall annually, the first Monday in May, report to the Council in writing the general state of the city, with an accurate account of the moneys received and expended, which report shall be published in each of such two newspapers in said city of opposite political faith as shall be designated by the City Council, giving full and particular statement of all receipts and disbursements. He shall have power to remove any of the officers, agents or servants by him appointed for neglect or violation of any duties pertaining to their respective offices and shall appoint others in their stead and shall report such removal and appointment to the City Council at its next regular meeting, for its approval or disapproval, he shall have general supervision of the city and shall submit from time to time to the Council such recommendations as he shall deem proper. He shall also by virtue of his office be chairman of the trustees of the sinking fund, and of the board of health, and shall discharge all the duties pertaining

Duties of mayor.