

CHAP. 262 may be deducted from the salary of the officer so offending, or collected as other fines are collected.

FEES AND POWER OF BAILIFF.

176. The bailiff and all policemen of said town duly elected or appointed according to law, shall have the same powers and receive the same fees as constables in Allegany county for making arrests or serving process for violation of the ordinances of said town or in the discharge of their duties as such. The bailiff shall collect and turn over to the treasurer all fines imposed for violation of ordinances, and shall properly care for and safely keep all prisoners confined in the town lockup, and shall be entitled to charge and receive the sum of fifteen cents for each meal served to such prisoners, and the sum of one dollar ($1.50) and fifty cents for the transportation of prisoners committed to the county jail.

Fees and power of bailiff.

VIOLATION OF ORDINANCES.

177. In cases where any person is found guilty of violating any of the ordinances of said town, it shall and may be lawful for the Mayor or any justice of the peace appointed for districts 11, 12, 26 and 28, authorized to try said case, upon the conviction of the offender to impose the fine prescribed by the particular ordinance under which said person is tried, and upon failure or refusal of the party thus convicted to pay such fine and costs, to commit him to the town lockup for a time not exceeding five days, or to the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days.

Violation of ordinances.

EXEMPTION FROM TAXATION.

178. Said Mayor and Councilmen shall have power to make contracts exempting from town taxation the real and personal property or capital stock of any manufacturing company desiring to locate in said town, and as an inducement to locate therein; provided, that such contract exempting the same shall be limited and shall not exceed ten years.

Exemption
from taxation.

179. The revised, codified and printed ordinances of the Mayor and Councilmen of Frostburg now adopted, or as the same may hereafter be adopted from time to time by the Mayor and Councilmen, and the printed copy thereof, issued by authority and under the sanction of said body, shall be legal evidence of the passage and of the contents of the ordinance contained therein in any court of law or equity

Legal evidence