

sioners of Anne Arundel county are hereby authorized and directed to borrow on the credit of said county an amount not exceeding the sum of sixty thousand dollars, and to issue coupon bonds therefor in sums of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars each, to be signed by the president of the said board of County Commissioners, and countersigned by the clerk of said board; said bonds shall bear interest at the rate of four per centum per annum, payable semi-annually on the first day of July and January in each year, and shall be forever exempt from all taxation from county, municipal and school purposes, and shall have printed on them a distinct reference to the Act as authorizing the issue thereof.

CHAP. 269

Borrow a sum of money,

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That said bonds shall be issued in six series, each consisting of one-sixth of the amount of bonds to be issued under this Act, and dated the first day of July, 1906, and shall be redeemable as follows: The first series five years after date; the second series ten years after date; the third series, fifteen years after date; the fourth series twenty years after date; the fifth series twenty-five years after date, and the sixth series thirty years after date; and the said bonds shall be advertised and sold to the highest bidder or bidders for cash by the County Commissioners; provided, said bonds shall not be sold for less than face value.

Bonds to be issued.

SEC. 6. And be it enacted, That for the purpose of redeeming said bonds at their maturity, and for securing the prompt payment of the interest thereon, the County Commissioners shall, for the year 1906 and annually thereafter, levy a tax on the assessable property of said county sufficient to pay the annual interest on said bonds, and in addition thereto the sum of nineteen hundred dollars of the principal of said debt. The interest on said bonds shall be receivable by the county treasurer of said county for taxes upon presentation of the coupons of the current year, and the treasurer of the said county shall, in addition to the reservation now provided by law for the prompt payment of public taxes, reserve out of the money collected by him for county purposes generally a sum sufficient to pay interest on said bonds at the times when said interest shall fall due, which interest shall be payable by the treasurer of said county upon the presentation of the coupons as they may fall due. The said

Levy a tax.
