

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the following additional sections be added to Article 21 of the Code of Public Local Laws of the State of Maryland, title "Talbot County," sub-title "License," to be numbered respectively 127 J, 127 K, 127 L, 127 M, 127 N, 120 O. and 127 P.

CHAP. 272

New sections added.

Section 127 J. And be it enacted, That it shall be unlawful for any person or persons who shall not be a resident or residents of Talbot county to advertise for sale, at public auction or at private sale, either in their own name or in the name of any resident or residents of said county, any horses or mules exceeding five in number until he or they shall first have taken out a license for that purpose, as hereinafter provided in this Act.

Unlawful to sell without license.

Section 127 K. And be it enacted, That any non-resident or residents of Talbot county, before proceeding to advertise or sell any horses or mules, as provided in the foregoing section, shall apply to the clerk of the Circuit Court for Talbot county, in person, for a license to advertise and sell horses and mules at public auction or private sale, and shall pay to the said clerk a license fee of fifty dollars if the number of said horses and mules shall not exceed ten; a license fee of one hundred if the number of horses and mules shall not exceed fifteen, and a license fee of one hundred and fifty dollars if the number of horses and mules shall not exceed twenty, and a license of two hundred dollars if the number of said horses and mules shall exceed twenty; and upon the payment of such fees the clerk shall require of said applicant or applicants that they make oath to the number of horses and mules intended to be advertised and sold, and shall thereupon issue to such applicant or applicants a license to advertise and sell such horses and mules to the number specified in said license.

License must be obtained.

Oath to be taken.

Section 127 L. And be it enacted, That upon obtaining a license, as provided for in the preceding section, the person or persons named in the said license shall be authorized to advertise and sell horses and mules to the number named in said license; provided, however, that such sale shall be made within thirty days from the date of the license.

May advertise and sell horses, etc.

Section 127 M. And be it enacted, That the clerk of the Circuit Court shall receive as fee for issuing said license the sum of one dollar, which shall be retained by him from the Clerk to receive license fee.
