

of the town property, rights and privileges ; for the preservation of the peace and good order, and securing persons from violence, danger and destruction ; for the protection of the health, comfort and convenience of the citizens of Kitzmillersville, and visitors thereto or sojourners there ; for providing proper and suitable lights on the streets ; for establishing, maintaining and regulating an adequate police force; to regulate the management and location of livery stables, stables, barns, outhouses or privies and such other establishments of which the business, trade or location may become obnoxious or injurious to the public comfort or health; to prohibit the erection of such buildings, the continuance of such noxious occupations therein whenever the public health requires it; to prevent or regulate the use of fire arms therein, fireworks, bonfires or other things or practices tending to endanger persons or property ; to regulate or prohibit the running at large of cattle, horses, swine, fowls, sheep, goats, hogs or other animals ; to authorize the empounding, keeping, sale and redemption of such animals when found in violation of the ordinances in such cases provided ; to prevent the deposit of any unwholesome substance, either on public or private property ; to compel its removal ; to designate a point, and to require slop, garbage, ashes and other waste or unwholesome material to be removed to designated points, or to require the occupants or residents on premises to place them conveniently for removal ; to compel the occupants of any premises, buildings or outhouses situate in said town, when the same hath become filthy or unwholesome, to abate or clean the same ; to authorize the same to be done by the proper officers and to assess the expenditures thereon against such property ; to authorize the removal or confinement of such persons having infectious or pestilential diseases ; to regulate the selling, weighing or measuring of hay, wood, coke, coal, and all other articles sold by weight and measure and to provide for their inspection and selling ; to make all regulations which may be deemed expedient for the promotion of health or the suppression of disease ; to regulate the construction of chimneys, smoke-stacks, hearths or ovens, and the erection of stoves and stove-pipes, boilers and apparatus used in buildings or other places, and cause the same to be removed or made secure when considered dangerous ; to suppress, restrain and regulate bawdy