

headed "Party Affiliation," and the board of registers shall enter in this column the name of the political party, if any, to which the voter is inclined and with which the voter desires to have himself recorded as affiliated. It shall be the duty of the board of registry to explain to each voter that the statement of such party affiliation does not bind him to vote for the candidates of such party at any given election; also, that he has the right to decline to state any party affiliation, but that no one who is not recorded upon the registry as affiliated with a particular political party will be qualified to vote at subsequent primary elections of said political party. Whenever a voter declines to state his party affiliation, the word "Declined" shall be written opposite his name under such column, so that there shall be written in such column, opposite the name of every registered voter, either his party affiliation or the word "Declined." And in all primary elections thereafter held, any person so registered as affiliated with a given political party shall have the right to receive and vote the official ballot of that party and of no other. And at any intermediate registration subsequent to the close of the next general registration, such voter may appear before the board of registry, and, upon his identity being established to the satisfaction of the majority of the board of registry, he shall have the right to require the said board of registry to make, alter or strike out any entry in the column headed "Party Affiliations," opposite his name in the registry. It shall be the duty of the board of registry to enter in the column headed "Remarks" the fact that such entry was made, altered or stricken out, and the date thereof.
