

CHAP. 56

shall distribute and apportion pro rata to the several particular heads or items of expenses as required to be designated in the levy for general purposes as provided by Section 195; he shall pay out the several sums of money which may be collected or received upon warrants as hereinafter directed, and in no case shall the collector pay out the money collected and credited for one purpose to or for any other except that when the purpose for which any account shall have been created has been fulfilled and all obligations which may have existed against the said account have been satisfied and there remains to the credit to the said account a balance; he shall, if the Mayor and Council shall so order, transfer the said balance to the credit of the general purpose account; he shall make under oath quarterly reports, viz., to the first regular meeting of the Mayor and Council in July, October, January, and April, next succeeding the date of his appointment, or any other time when called upon by the Mayor and Council, showing the condition of his receipts and expenditures, and the statement submitted in January shall be published by the Mayor and Council in one or more newspapers published in the town as they may direct; the tax collector shall give bond to the Mayor and Council, to be approved by them, for the faithful discharge of his duties, in such penalty as they may prescribe not less than double the amount of the taxes levied, and shall receive such compensation for his services as the Council may deem proper, such compensation, however, to be fixed at the date of his appointment, and he shall not receive any other fees or compensation except that fixed at the date of his appointment; and any tax collector who shall violate the provisions of this section shall be liable to indictment in the Circuit Court for Washington County, and upon conviction shall be fined or imprisoned, or both, at the discretion of the Court.

Bond to be given.

Penalty.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved March 8, 1906.

CHAPTER 56.

AN ACT to make the thoroughfare in the thirteenth election district of Baltimore county leading easterly from