

with stabling to be at all times sufficient for five horses at least ; all said beds and chambers to be and remain on said premises on which intoxicating liquor is by this sub-title of this article licensed to be sold ; and which applicant shall also file in the office of the clerk of said court his bond, duly executed to the State, with at least two securities, or satisfactory security to the clerk, to be approved by said clerk, in the penal sum of fifteen hundred dollars, conditioned for the faithful observance of the provisions of this sub-title of this article, and the payment of any and all fines, penalties and damages which may be imposed or recovered under this sub-title of this article, which said bond shall be responsible to all such persons herein described as may be injured by the sale of intoxicating liquors sold by any person licensed under this sub-title of this article ; provided, however, that if there shall not be twelve freeholders resident in the school district in which the house may be situated where intoxicating liquors are expected to be sold or if said house be not situated within the limits of any school district, in such case it shall be sufficient that the certificate required by this section shall be signed by at least twelve freeholders, resident in the election district in which said hotel may be situated.

CHAP. 299

Bond to be given.

Section 136. Before any person can obtain a license under the sub-title of this article, he shall be required to pay to said clerk for the license to be issued as hereinafter directed for each place of sale of intoxicating liquor, the sum of money which is now or which hereafter may be required by the general laws of the State, to be paid into the treasury of the State, and shall in addition thereto pay the said clerk for a license to sell by the drink or in quantities not to exceed five gallons the sum of three hundred and fifty dollars for one year ; and whenever the said court is satisfied that the house in which liquors are to be sold will be a bona fide hotel for the reception of guests or permanent or transient boarders at all times and kept and generally recognized as such, and shall be further satisfied that the said applicant is a fit person to conduct a hotel, and that the provisions of this Act are fully complied with, it shall be the duty of the said clerk upon the order of the court to issue to the applicant a license according to law, and all licenses issued under said sub-title of this article shall be transferable as traders'

License to be issued.