

CHAP. 299

licenses now are under the general laws of the State, and shall expire on the first day of May next thereafter; said license fees shall be paid by said clerk to the Board of County School Commissioners of Worcester county to be by said board applied to and used as a part of the public general school fund of said county, and the bond of said clerk shall be liable for the payment of said money on suit instituted by the said board.

Unlawful to sell liquor to minors, etc.

Section 137. No person who shall obtain a license under the sub-title of this article shall sell or barter any intoxicating spirituous, vinuous or fermented liquors to any minor except upon the written order of his parent, guardian or employer, nor to any person intoxicated at the time, nor to any person acting as the agent or in any way on account of such intoxicated person or minor, nor to any person known to the community as an habitual drunkard; but any hotel keeper licensed under this sub-title of this article may sell intoxicating, spirituous or fermented liquors to all other persons by the drink or in quantities not exceeding five gallons, but not otherwise; that said hotel keepers in said Worcester county, licensed under the provisions of this Act shall not sell nor give away any spirituous, vinuous, fermented or intoxicating liquors of any description between the hours of twelve o'clock at midnight and five o'clock in the morning, and all that part of the hotel or hotels in which said liquors shall be kept for sale shall be closed between the said hours of twelve o'clock at midnight and five o'clock in the morning and shall not be opened at any time between the said last named hours of twelve o'clock at midnight and five o'clock in the morning.

Unlawful to sell liquor
between certain hours.

Section 138 A. Any person who shall buy intoxicating, spirituous, vinuous or fermented liquors of any person licensed under this sub-title of this article, for or on account of any minor or intoxicated person or habitual drunkard, or any minor who shall purchase such liquors in any manner whatsoever except upon the written order of his parent, guardian or employer, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and liable upon conviction to a fine not to exceed twenty dollars and costs, and any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this Act shall upon indictment and conviction thereof be fined not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars

Guilty of misdemeanor.