

CHAP. 313

Sum of money
to be set apart.

SEC. IX. And be it enacted, That from the moneys collected by the treasurer each year on account of county taxes, the said sum of five thousand dollars shall be set apart for said sinking fund, as set forth in Section VIII of this Act, and a separate account of the same shall be kept by the treasurer and deposited to the credit of said fund in the said Annapolis Savings Institution and the said Annapolis Banking and Trust Company, in equal parts, as hereinbefore prescribed in Section VIII, and no part of which shall be chargeable within insolvencies granted the treasurer on account of failure of assessments or collections. And in all cases in which checks shall be drawn for any purpose whatever upon the said funds, deposited as herein provided for, said checks shall be drawn for equal amounts upon the funds on deposit in each of the banking institutions mentioned herein, so as to leave on deposit in each of said institutions an equal amount, as near as may be.

Disposition of money from sale of bonds

SEC. X. And be it enacted, That the moneys arising from the sale of said bonds shall be paid to the joint order of the president of the board of County Commissioners of Anne Arundel county and the treasurer of said county; and the said treasurer shall keep in a book to be provided for this purpose, a full registry of the bonds sold, the different series thereof, the serial numbers of the bonds and the names of the purchasers, and the amounts realized on sale and any transfers or assignments thereof, and no moneys realized from the sale of said bonds shall be paid for road work in any district or districts of said county, the same being a charge against the respective districts; and whatever moneys are paid out upon the outstanding certificates for road work, the same shall be charged as against the district for which the said money is so paid, it being the intent of this Act that under the provisions of law, as now existing, that each district shall pay the amount levied against it for the road work therein, and in making levies for the payment of said bonds where levies have not heretofore been made against the said respective districts, that the proportion of money paid on behalf of any single district shall be a charge against such district.

SEC. XI. And be it enacted, That the said County Commissioners shall, before the work of repairing any bridges across a navigable stream actually begin (if said work shall
