

CHAP. 68

five per centum per annum, and said bonds shall have written or printed on them a distinct reference to the Act authorizing the issue of same.

How redeem-
able.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That said bonds shall be redeemable, as follows, that is to say: five hundred dollars thereof in two years from date of their issue, and thereafter annually five hundred dollars each and every year until the whole amount so issued shall have been fully paid, and to this end they shall be issued in series and redeemable in their proper order, and said bonds shall be sold after due advertisement, by the County Commissioners; provided, however, that none of said bonds shall be sold for less than par value.

Tax to be levied.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners shall cause to be levied and collected from the assessable property in Calvert county a tax annually, which shall be sufficient to pay the interest on said bonds, and to redeem said bonds as they severally mature, and the said tax shall be collected in like manner as other taxes levied in said county are collected, and when collected shall be applied to the payment of said bonds as they mature, and the interest thereon annually.

Sealed proposals to be advertised
for the construction of
said bridge.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That the County Commissioners shall cause to be advertised in a newspaper published in Calvert county the location of said bridge, giving specifications of length, width and height of said bridge, and of the material to be used in said construction and manner of workmanship thereon, and requesting sealed proposals for the building of said bridge, said proposals to be received to an hour named in said advertisement; said sealed proposals are to be opened in the presence of at least two County Commissioners, together with their clerk, and to the lowest possible bidder the contract of building said bridge shall be given; provided, however, the County Commissioners may have the right to reject any and all bids if in their opinion the bid is considered excessive in the amount specified therein; should an award be made to lowest responsible bidder and a contract entered into, then upon notice of the completion of said contract the County Commissioners, or a majority of them, shall make a minute inspection and critically examine the said bridge, or have the same examined by an expert, and if the work has been done according to speci-