

CHAP. 384

said town, who shall serve for a term of two years or until their successors are elected and qualified, and they, together with the two members of the Council elected at the election held in said town on the first Monday in May, 1905, to hold office for two years from said date, and the Mayor, shall constitute the Council of said town. The citizens aforesaid shall elect on the first Monday in May of each year thereafter two persons to be members of the Council of said town, who shall serve for two years or until their successors are elected and qualified. The qualifications for voters for Mayor and members of the Council shall be the same as prescribed for voters by the laws of this State. They must have resided within the corporation limits of said town for at least six months next preceding their election. The Mayor and members of the Council must continue to reside in said town during their terms of office, and they shall receive no fees or compensation for their services except that the Mayor shall receive the fees allowed by said charter in Section 8, Chapter 453, of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1898.

Appoint three
election.

Section 6. They shall annually, on or before the first Monday in April, appoint three judges of election, who shall appoint a clerk; and the said judges shall conduct an election by ballot, in accordance with the provisions of Section 3 of this Act—the polls to be opened at two o'clock P. M. and closed at seven o'clock P. M. The judges and clerk shall make their return to the Council, but said judges and clerk shall receive no compensation for their services. Not more than two of said judges of election shall be of the same political party.

When taxes
are due and payable.

Section 16. All taxes levied by the Council shall be due as soon as they are levied, and are payable at the office of the clerk and treasurer of said town. The ordinance providing for the levying of taxes shall of itself constitute the authority for the same, and no other warrant or evidence of authority shall be required. On or before the first day of September of each year the clerk and treasurer shall prepare a full and complete list of all taxes in arrears, with a description of the property and the amount of taxes due from each, and a penalty of one per centum of such taxes in arrears shall be added on said first day of September, and a like penalty of one per centum on the first day of each succeeding
