

WHEREAS, The said charter provided that the said corporation should enure fifty years, and whereas, the said charter has expired; and whereas, the said Oheb Sholom Congregation of Baltimore city is still conducted as a religious corporation; now, therefore,

CHAP. 390

Preamble.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the charter of the Oheb Sholom Congregation of Baltimore city, granted by virtue of the Act of Assembly, made and passed at the January Session 1852, said charter having been approved by William Frick, judge of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, on the 25th day of November, in the year 1854, be and the same is hereby revived and extended for forty years.

Charter revived.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That the said charter, when revived and extended, and the said congregation under said charter, shall have all rights and privileges and be subject to all the obligations which the said Oheb Sholom congregation of Baltimore city had under the said charter, granted on the 25th day of November, 1854.

Rights and privileges.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect from the date of its passage.

Approved April 3, 1906.

CHAPTER 391.

AN ACT to authorize and empower the Board of Fire Commissioners of Baltimore City to pay a weekly pension to Mrs. Esther Pistel, widow of Lawrence Pistel, formerly Captain of No. 4 Engine Company.

WHEREAS, Lawrence Pistel, formerly the captain of No. 4 Engine Company of the city of Baltimore, was fatally injured at the fire on McElderry's wharf, which occurred on the 16th day of February, 1899, he being buried under falling walls and remaining there for more than two hours before being rescued and removed to the hospital, and never recovered from his injuries; and

Preamble.

WHEREAS, During 34 years of continuous service he was never before any board on any charge whatsoever; and

WHEREAS, His widow is now without other income or means of support; now, therefore,