

ing to the condition and circumstances of the deceased, not to exceed three hundred dollars ; second, charges for medical attendance in last illness, to be allowed at the discretion of the court according to the condition and circumstances of the deceased, not to exceed fifty dollars ; third, the debts of the deceased proved or passed, as herein directed, and paid or retained ; fourth, the allowance for things lost or which have perished without the party's fault, which allowance shall be according to the appraisement ; fifth, his commissions, which shall be at the discretion of the court, not under two per cent., nor exceeding ten per cent. on the first twenty thousand dollars of the estate, and on the balance of the estate not more than two per cent. ; sixth, his allowance for cost and extraordinary expenses (not personal), which the court may think proper to allow, laid out in the recovery or security of any part of the estate ; and the court may allow him credit for live stock killed for the necessary use of the family before a sale.

CHAP. 410

Disbursements to be stated.

Approved April 3, 1906.

CHAPTER 411.

AN ACT to authorize and provide for the construction and equipment of a suitable Annex or Extension to the Maryland Penitentiary for the use of female convicts, and to authorize the application to such construction and equipment of the proceeds of the sale of one hundred and thirty-four thousand dollars of the Maryland State bonds issued but not yet sold, out of the total issue of one million, six hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars of such bonds authorized by the Act of 1904, Chapter 228, said one hundred and thirty-four thousand dollars being the amount left unused out of the appropriation of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, made by the Act of 1904, Chapter 129, for the relief of cases of destitution and need caused by the fire in Baltimore, of February 7 and 8, 1904, and for the payment out of said money of the militia of the State who were called out for service in Baltimore immediately after said fire.